

Work procedure – Notification of quarantine or isolation for students

A student in quarantine/isolation

The student registers illness on Inna every day and notes that that student is in quarantine/isolation and for how long.

The school office sends an e-mail to the teachers of the student in question and the student attends to his studies through the school's electronic learning environment.